He tys: "Bryan will certainly carry Michigan, and a majority of the congressmen will be free-silver men. I have spoken throughout the State, and have been well aware of the movement towards the Bryan ticket by the free-silver Republicans. Whilst we would like to see and hear them, we do not need them. Don't scatter. Break the enemy's lines."

Enclosed with this is the following estimate of the vote:

"At the last election Budd had 112,600 votes and Estes 111,000. Webster's vote was $1,000. It is safe to say that $5,000 of the 51,000 Populists will vote for Bryan. It is the people's campaign, and the clubs and local organ-izations will get out the vote and see that it is cast "The silver sentiment in Michigan overtops every other question. I will give you one example-namely, that of the only banker of Schoolcraft, who is an ardent free-silver man. He has come out ardent free-silver man. He has come out openly, and says, and his argument as a banker is, 'I would sooner have silver dollars than my neighbors' farms.' And that is but a sample. Republican Meeting in Crewe. Republican Meeting in Crewe.

CREWE, VA., October 10.—(Special.)—

Mr. Fred S. Schulze, of New York, entertained a good-sized audience here tonight in Mann's Hall in a speech of a little over one hour, in which he expounded the Republican dictage. His talk was very conservative. Indeed, as regards to the free coinage of silver, some of his points were good Democratic arguments. He spoke of the sessicity of silver ore as compared with cratic arguments. He spoke of the sessicity of silver ore as compared with gold, and stated that he had for a num-ber of years been engaged in the mining

Crown Council, which was held at Hubertusstock on Wednesday, at the summona of the Kaiser, who is spending a hunting season at that place, was a very lated the policy of the government in regard to the legislation which is to be submitted to the Reichstag at the next session of that body, which will begin Such a council is very rare, only two having been held since 1890, when a Kronrath preceded the dissolution of the Reichstag and the resignation of Prince Bismarck from the imperial chancellorship.

It is learned by the Southern Associated Press that the council held this week was summoned by the Emperor at the direct instance of Prince Hohenlohe, who believes that the gravest issues lohe, who believes that the gravest issues depend on the coming season of the Reichstag. The ministers whe attended the council were unanimous in the balief that the present Reichstag will refuse to grant the naval credits which the Emperor wants, but they differed as to the expediency of dissalving that body. This Reichstag will expire by limitation in 1898, and meny of the ministers were in favor of waiting and allowing the n favor of waiting and allowing the House to die a natural death.
